IDAHO MARYLAND STRIKE LOOKS BIG TENDERFOOT DISCARDS REAL GOLD

Development of the strike recently made on the 1900 level of the Idaho Maryland mine shows the possible discovery of a new vein system extension of the famous Idaho-Maryland vein which produced so many millions in years gone by and made this mine one of the biggest producers of the precious yellow metal in all of California's golden history. The Eureka-Idaho-Maryland pay shoot produced during the heydey of its existence a total of $19,131,187 and paid dividends of $7,071,084.

Driving on the shoot recently exposed has penetrated a distance of 100 feet from point of discovery and the ledge matter between walls has increased from four to eight feet in width and the values are holding up in excellent shape. The new discovery is an independent ore shoot which has never been cut into in any of the previous workings and there are really three veins tied up in the shoot. The ore so far looks much better than the old Idaho Maryland shoot.

Ground is also to be opened up on the 1000 and 1600 levels to develop the new find at an early date and determine its extent. This vein system outcrops on the surface but like other outcrops on the property did not carry high values and was passed up by the previous operators The following taken from the State Mining Bureau report issued in 1918 shows this significant statement: "In view of the development, in the other large mines of Grass Valley district, of numerous disconnected ore bodies often hundreds of feet apart, it appears that the Canon shaft ore shoot offers an excellent opportunity for the development of another ore body entirely independent of the Eureka Idaho Maryland pay shoot; nor can it be said that these two ore bodies exhaust the possibilities of the property, for there is every reason and precedent to expect that aggressive and systematic development work will open up other pay shoots on the known lode and there is also the possibility that other parallel or diverging veins will be discovered."

A flashlight picture of the new discovery is on display in The Nugget window and has attracted a great deal of attention.

It is expected that unwatering of the Brunswick shaft will be commenced this summer which should mean the operating of the combined properties of the Idaho Maryland, Brunswick and Union Hill on a large scale.

WESTERN MERGER MILL IS PROGRESSING

Work of getting the foundations ready for the batteries in the new Western Merger mill is progressing rapidly and pouring concrete will be in order. Several weeks should see things well along toward a production basis at this property which gives every promise of becoming one of the best paying mines of the Nevada City district.

CHEMICALLY PURE GOLD

As might have been expected, the exclusive story carried in the last issue of The Nugget regarding the chemically pure golr in ore found in this section, created widespread interest and some skepticism. That latter always happens with something new.

State Mineralogist Lloyd L. Root of San Francisco was in the office Saturday to see the rock and stated that it had possibilities in the "life" that it exhibited. A great many people have been in to see the exhibit which is creating such interest.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. King have returned from Oakland to make their home here.

Mrs. W. S. Coughlan has returned from a visit with relatives in Alameda.

The motor vehicle fund distribution made to the counties by the state last week shows Nevada county to receive $6296 with 2919 motor vehicles registered.

Mrs. K. Adams who formerly resided here, came up from Oakland alst week for a short stay.

The front of the Dickerman drug store has been given a new coat of pain, A. C. Duke doing the work.

The Nugget is privileged to print in this issue about one of the most unusual mining stories that has come to hand in all the history of the industry and it is fuily vouched for by one of our business men.

From time immemorial those of the tenderfoot gentry have been accused of the practice of associating "fool's gold" with the simon pure article but it remained the past week for a tenderfoot to reverse the procedure.

This party, who has been employed on the new diversion ditch to carry the waters from Deer Creek into Wolf creek some time since found a four inch ledge of ore which the ditch had cut through and found a lot of rock showing what he supposed to be of the imitation variety and heaved it overboard as he came to it. Getting curious afterwards he brought a couple of fair sized pieces to town and showed them to a business man and told him that it was too bad that it wasn't the real stuff as he had thrown away a lot of that kind of rock during the work at that point. The business man took it up and looking at it closely, excitedly informed the finder that he had lit on quartz literally plastered with free gold in considerable quantity and that he had better trot back and gather up what he had discarded as he had a fortune in sight. The fellow beat it and hasn't been seen in town since. He is an itinerant in this section and his name was not learned at the time.

He did not leave word of the exact location of the find but it is presumed to be in the Nevada Basin district and doubtless a part of some mining property already.

SACRED MOUND STOPING IS COMMENCED

Stoping in the Sacred Mound mine at Sierra City was commenced Saturday in preparation for early milling operations at this property. The new mill has been completed and presents an imposing appearance. The screens and plates are yet to be installed but this is a matter of a few days and production will begin.

A different type of milling practice is being introduced at this property than has been followed in this district, in that a Gibson rod mill will be used with a 75 ton capacity. Its workings will be watched with a great deal of interest. An expert on this type of mill who has been looking over mining properties in the Sierra City section visited the plant the past week and expressed as greatly astonished at the complete equipment that has been installed.

The tunnel is in 835 feet with 240 feet of drift on the vein, 50 feet of crosscuts and 75 feet of raises.

The Thursday Club held its meeting last week at the home of Mrs. E. W. Smith on Park avenue.

Oliver Clark was here from North Bloomfield one day last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Leonard Park of Sierra Ciy were in town one day last week enroute home from Los Angeles. Mr. Park is head of the California Buttes Mining Company operating exvtensively in the Sierra City field.

C. R. Murchie has been attending the hardware convention in San Francisco the past week.

Charles Hegarty has returned from a business trip to San Francisco.

James D. Stewart was up from Auburn on business one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Sandlin were up from Sacramento last week for a short visit.

In the absence of Judge Raglan Tuttle in Los Angeles for a month, Sueprior Judge Landis of Auburn will handle matters in the local court.

Thomas W. Richards, popular apothecary has been appointed to the local school board to succeed Frank M. Nilon resigned.

The speaker of the day at the Lions luncheon last Tuesday was E. H. Gum, sheriff of Placer county. He gave a very interesting talk to a large assemblage.

A. T. Taylor, a former resident, was here from Monterey last week.

GAYLORD URGED TO MAKE ASSEMBLY RACE

E. C. Gaylord is being widely urged to get into the assembly race this year and thereby secure needed representation for the mining interests of this district which has been lacking in this respect under the present incumbency. Mr. Gaylord is a former representative and knows the ropes, and being both a miner and a farmer should be in a position to give the distrit the representation in legislative halls that it greatly needs. While in Nevada City Tuesday he stated that he had arrived at no decision in the matter but that he was giving it some consideration, owing to the widespread interest that is being taken in mining.

GRAND HIGH PRIEST ARRIVED YESTERDAY

James B. McLees of San Diego, Grand High Priest of Royal Arch Masons of California, and D. B. Richards of San Francisco, Grand Lecturer, arrived in Marysville yesterday afternoon from Redding where they participated in a large Masonic gathering Saturday night. They were met at Marysville and brought to Nevada City last night and today are being shown the sights of this famous mining camp. They are being given a trip underground in one of the large properties and given an insight into how gold is transmuted from its raw state ready for the marts of trade. McLees while here has had the pleasure of renewing his acquaintance with Judge George L. Jones.

The district meeting to be held tonight in Masonic Temple promises to be one of the finest attended gatherings in the history of the 7th District. A sumptuous banquet will be served commencing at 6:30 o'clock, Nevada, Grass Valley, Auburn and Colfax Chapters being represented by delegations of officers and companions. After the banquet, the officers of Nevada Chapter will open chapter for the purpose of officially welcoming the distinguished visitors. The Grand Officers will install the officers of Grass Valley Chapter and an address will be given by Mr. McLees.

CARLSON NEW AGENT FOR NARROW GAUGE

John Carlson formerly relief agent for the Sacramento Division of the Southern Pacific has been appointed station agent for the Nevada County Railroad at Nevada City and has assumed his duties. He with Mrs. Carlson have taken apartments on Sacramento Street. Both young people will be given a hearty welcome into the life of Nevada City for they are likeable and sociable.

If you stop to think there are a number of new people taking up their abode in our charming little city which is a favorable omen of returning growth.

BEN HUR WAS LARGELY ATTENDED AT THEATRE

The noted photo play "Ben Hur" was enthusiastically received on its two night showing at the Nevada Theatre last week and Manager Tamblyn is to be highly commended on his willingness to bring attractions of this type to our city. The theatre was crowded both nights. The picture was a masterpiece historically in its close attention on the original setting and in its scenic presentation of one of th e greatest stories ever written. The interest taken in a picture of this kind should be conclusive evidence to the film production that the cheap, sloppy kind are but fleeting. Would that more of the former type were produced.

Those attending the Episcopal Diocese convention in Chico from Nevada City this week were, Mesdames. D. E. Blakely, C. E. Parsons and Phoebe Hathaway.

Frank Wood came in from Sweetland Friday remaining but a few hours.

The James Penrose grocery is sporting a fine new delivery truck.

The interior of the Schrieber building is being given a new coat of paint which makes it glisten.

CITY TRUSTEES GIVE HEED TO FIREMENS PLEA

In a meeting that ran the gamut of human interest, the February love feast of the city trustees occasioned itself on Thursday night. That dividing railing whereby the plebeian herd are kept in their proper places seems to be the leaven in the lump and keeps things moving much smoother. The officials are able to display much more dignity and decorum, be less disturbed in their mental peregrinations and to assume a more august appearance to the outer world.

Choosing slogans to advertise our city was a popular diversion after the extended discussion over the more prosaic occupation of purchasing fire hose was accomplished. The mayor contributed an anecdote regarding a trip through Salt Lake City, but the clerk not to be outdone in that line, told one himself with a more local flavor which added much to the eclat of the occasion.

Prospects of entertaining for a day a number of delegates to the August convention of the Pacific Coast Fire Chief's which will be held at Sacramento brought out a great deal of discussion after the Fire Chief had introduced the topic. It is hoped that the entertainment committee at Sacramento which is arranging the details of the convention can be persuaded to provide a trip up the "Trail of Gold" as aptly expressed by the clerk. The matter is to be looked into further.

The firemen at last had their innings in the matter of the securing of new fire hose and they were authorized to proceed with the purchase to the extent of $500 which will greatly augment the present supply and make it possible to handle nearly any fire menace which can arise. The trustees showed a great deal of interest in the matter after being given detailed figures of the present supply on hand and its condition. The report showed 2,000 feet of 2½ inch hose in good to fair condition and 450 feet of bad stuff. There is 1100 feet of double jacket and 900 feet of single jacket, of various vintage dating as far back at 1900.

A new fire plug for the business section on Broad Street is seen as a result of the findings of fire truck driver Hallett that a six inch water main crosses the street near the New York Hotel and at present serves only a plug on Commercial Street. It is proposed to install a plug near the hotel and not attempt to replace the present defective one in front of the city hall. This will greatly increase the plug efficiency on the street.

One water consumer who has been getting a short supply of the needful according to his report will have a visit from the water superintendent who was instructed to look into the matter.

The numerous stray canines who litter up the premises of a number of our residences with their lawn parties came up for brief discussion.

The report of the city treasurer shows the following:

Receipts

Water collections	$1535.75
Meat license	$25.00
Sale of rock	$105.55
D. T.& T. C., 2 per cent of gross earnings	225.55
Total receipts	1891,85

The January expenditures showed warrants on the general fund to the extent of $1264.03, Fire fund $178.01 and library fund $171.43.

The firemen were granted the privilege of holding the monthly meeting of the fire delegates in the city hall together with such special meetings as may be necessary.

The Knights of Columbus enjoyed a fine gathering at Grass Valley last Tuesday night when District Deputy Matt Arnoldy of Marysville and State Deputy Robert A. McKenzie of San Francisco paid an official visit to the local Council, Grand Knight Vincent V. Foley presided at the banquet.

Miss Elma Becker of the court house staff is carrying her right arm about in a sling for some time, due to some unknown cause to her. An X-Ray was taken Saturday afternoon to locate the seat of the trouble.

RISING SUN MINE NEARLY READY FOR OPERATING

Preparations for the reopening of the Rising Sun mine at Colfax are repidly nearing completion under the direction of E, C. Klinker. The shaft has been retimbered to water level and the headframe renewed so that active underground work may be resumed as soon as the new drain tunnel now being driven from Bear river, is completed.

This tunnel is now in 2054 feet and should reach the vein in about 80 feet more. Three veins have been cut along the course of the tunnel which warrant further prospecting. The driving of this adit has been difficult and expensive as it passes through an area of very hard black schist. The mine will be tapped about 475 feet below the surface and about 45 feet below the 500 level; low enough to drain the bulk of the water, which is making above the 400 level mostly.

This famous old property was worked first in 1866 and has produced some $2,000,000 in gold which varies from 1 to 3 feet in width. As a mine it is somewhat an infant as yet, compared to the mines of the local district, as it is but 750 feet in depth on the vein, with levels driven every 80 feet.

Ore of unusual richness has been found along a series of fault planes which cut the vein at nearly right angles and in the heyday of its production, it was owned principally by the Coleman brothers of Idaho fame, and Jacob H. Neff, former lieutenant governor of California.

The property was last opened in 1920 by John Zeeman of San Francisco but practically no development of any consequence was done at that time. This property gives every promise of a continuance of productivity at depth.

CAMP ASSOCIATION OFFICIALS ON VISIT

A party of officials of the California Camp Owners Association were in Nevada City Thursday on their way to the annual meeting of the Oregon Association which will be held in Roseburg today and tomorrow. Their car was plentifully decorated with streamers and placards to indicate they were from California. In the party making the trip to Oregon are President S. A. Davis of Oakland, Secreatry M. D. Beaver of Felton, Treasurer W. F. Coats of Santa Cruz, Directors C. N. Revis of Stockton and Elmer Weston of Redding; J. L. Vasey of San Francisco, Frank S. Widden and C. Marsh of San Jose and Ralph Herrick of the Redwood Empire, San Francisco and I. L. Putnam of Yuba City. A party will also travel up the Redwood Highway from Eureka for the meeting. The party made the trip to Nevada City to call on The Nugget publishers on their way north.

NEW BUSINESS FIRMS LOCATE IN NEVADA CITY

Nevada City is attracting a great deal of attention in the outer world by reason of the increased interest in gold mining locally and already a number of new business and professional men are preparing to open up in the community. With the announcement in this issue of The Nugget that a new undertaking firm is preparing to enter this field, a great deal of interest attaches on account of a proposed location which is being secured.

The firm of W. R. Jefford & Son who took over the business of W. D. Harris & Sons in Grass Valley last fall are making preparations to enter the local field with a complete modern funeral home that will be second to none in its appointments. The Jeffords, who came into the county after making a thorough survey of the state have found a hearty welcome in our neighboring city and by their business methods and affable manner have well established themselves.

The senior Jefford has had from fifteen to eighteen years experience as a mortician and has kept himself thoroughly posted on advanced methods in his profession. He is ably seconded by his son, Bob, who is a recent graduate of a leading Eastern school and has studied the science extensively. He stood second in a class of 65 students with an average of 97 per cent. He specialized in plastic surgery and took a complete coroner's course. He has been associated with his fater for the past five years. Both the establishment in Grass Valley and the new one in Nevada City will be under personal supervision of the Jeffords at all times.

With the advent of an new dentist in quarters being prepared in the Morgan & Powell building and another physician reported as seeking quarters here, Nevada City is experiencing a lot of new blood in her business life, which can but inure to her benefit.

A number of local Lions went down to Auburn Saturday night to attend the anniversary of Charter Night staged by the Auburn Lions Club.

An examination for the office of postmaster at Forest will be conducted here March 7th. Mrs. Phippen is the present postmistress.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Martz are entertaining their little grandaughter, Mistress Jeanie Martz of Steep Hollow.

W. E. Youngs celebrated their 37th wedding anniversary recently.

Mrs. Martha Hoskins left Saturday for Berkeley, where she was called by the illness of her sister.

The Tolemans are receiving hearty congratulations. Mother and babe are doing finely.

GEORGE MILLER WEDS MRS. EDITH BERNARD

At a quiet ceremony performed in Marysville Saturday, Mrs. Edith Bernard became the bride of Mr. George Miller. Following the ceremony the couple returned to Nevada City where a bounteous wedding feast had been prepared by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Miller, parents of the groom.

Mr. Miller holds an important position at the North Star mine and the many friends of the couple will extend felicitations as does The Nugget. They will reside on Main street.

T. LEONARD PARK TAKES BRIDE AT LOS ANGELES

The couple spent Sunday at Tia Juana and then drove through to Sierra City where Mr. Park is busy superintending the operations at the Sacred Mound and Monarch properties.

Both are very popular young people and will be given a hearty welcome in their new home community.

ASSESSORS BRING OUT TAXATION INCREASES

At the annual meeting of Northern California Assessors Association held at Red Bluff, several matters of interest to taxpayers were brought out.

The assessment on cattle is to be raised from $30 to 540 per head and a minimum value of $25 on automobiles was set. The possesory rights of all war veterans in their homes now being built by the state will be assessed, under a decision rendered by Attorney General Webb.

Dixwell Pierce, secretary of the state board of equalization stated that the gas tax would probably produce around $32,000,0000 next year and that this painless extraction of money for public purposes was dangerous as it was likely to induce too lavish expenditures. Pierce admonished the assessors to be on gouard against wild theorists.

Mr. and Mrs. Casserley came down from the Gibraltar mine above Downieville enroute to Stockton to spend the remainder of the winter. They stopped overnight in town.

BOY SCOUTS MOVEMENT WAS INAUGURATED 18 YEARGS AGO

The Boy Scout movement first saw the light of day on the eighth of February, 1910. Since its institution it has grown leaps and bounds until today it is recognized as one of the greatest movements for good that has ever been started in this country.

The Boy Scout movement is one of the three great enterprises that has been chartered by the Congress of the United States. It is recognized as one of the great outstanding movements of all times in the training of our youth. It has more to do with the moulding of men than any other movement of like nature which has been started before, or since.

There is some great controlling force that guides the destinies of men. This force with its all-seeing eye peering ahead to a time in the history of our nation when a great movement for good among the youth of the land would be needed to steer us straight. It was then that the Boy Scout movemen had its inception. It is functioning today on a stable basis and is proving a stabilizing force that will keep the young men of today, who are the citizens of tomorrow, from going too far afield. (Auburn Journal.)

FROM AN AUTHORITY

In a recent speech, Postmaster General New made the statement that "advertising is basically a form of education and not an economic waste. It ministers to the true development of trade, crates and changes public opinion and public sentiment. Modern business could not have been either created oh maintained without advertising. It is to advertising that very much of the success of the American industrial system is due." We want to applaud the remarks of the Postmaster General, and pass them along to our local business men, any of whom can profit by accepting such logic, and practicing exactly what Mr. New preaches. The most prosperous communities in the land are those whose stores and whose newspapers are prospering. And a little investigation will quickly show that those stores are most prosperous are the ones that are the strongest believers in local newspaper advertising.

The old Parks Bar bridge which built in the '50s on the trial between Camptonville and Brandy City as a toll bridge, collapsed and fell into the North Yuba river a few days ago.

THE NUGGET PAGE OF MINING NEWSGATHERED FROM OVER CALIFORNIA

GREENHORNS FOUND A NUGGET WORTH $7000

(Written by Thomas Conlin for the Sonora Union Democrat.)

In 1856, J. Alexander, a p[illegible] resident of Columbia, Tuolumne county, engaged in placer mining, sold his claim on Gold Hill, a suburb of Columbia, to a party of three green, tenderfeet, who jusa arrived from the East. The claim was not considered rich, as it had only averaged $4 a day to Alexander who had been working it for a considerable time. The cost of water at that early day was rather excessive, that is, when the ground was not rich. The high rates then prevailing were based on the richness of the early day placers, and which not been yet lowered as they should have been Consequently Alexander was glad to sell his claim, sluices and outfit to the greenhorns.

There was some unworked ground in the claim as well as qutie a number of what the miners of that day called Tumps, which were small pieces of new or unworked ground which the miners left standing at the intersection of each sluice box with the next one. When they had worked off all the ground on each side of their string of boxes, they then moved the boxes to the new ground so as to work off another wide strip, by shovelling in from both sides of the string of boxes.

The tumps were generally two or three feet through or square, so as to be large enough to support the boxes and keep them from caving, thus dispensing with the use of posts or timbers. The ground was about three feet deep where Alexander had worked. There were quite a number of these tumps left standing out alone from which Alexander had already moved his boxes.

The new owners took possession at once, following the same method of working as the former owner. The claim did not pay them any more than it did him, but they had not worked very long when one day one of them, Virgin by name, in digging into one of the tumps, dug out a chunk of gold which was said to have been the second largest nugget of gold found in the placer diggings in the vicinity of Columbia. The value has been variously stated to have been $6000 to $7000, but it is safe to say that it was about $6800. There was comparatively little waste and not very much quartz in it. As the name of the finder was "Virgin," and it was, one might say, pure virgin gold, and was found on "Gold Hill," the nugget was always refrred to as the Virgin Nugget, and is always called as such by the very few remainin gold residents who are familiar with the locality and the circumstances incident to its finding.

The lucky greenhorns did not tarry long in the diggings, but soon left for their Eastern homes, happy and satisfied with their success in gold mining during their short stay in Columbia.

MINING PATENTS

Applications for patents on mineral lands have been made during January as follows at the Sacramento Land Office:

Wm. Eilers of Ingot, Shasta Co., 40 acres, lode claims, St. John and Washington District.

John Solaro, 53 acres, quartz, in the Vallecito, Calaveras county, District.

Clinto E. Dollean of Huntington Park, 1926 acres of potash claims in Los Angeles county.

There's still a lot of luck around Nevada City. We know some fellows who got both socks and neckties for Chistmas.

KILAGA SPRINGS ARE TAKEN BY COMPANY

The widely known Kilaga mineral springs near Lincoln have been taken over by a newly formed stock company composed of Lincoln and Sacramento financial interests and so great has been the interest taken in the enterprise that the proposed stock issue was over subscribed before an application was made for the permit to sell stock.

The Kilaga springs are owned by E. C. Gaylord of Lincoln and Judge J. B. Landis of Auburn and the mineral water has become known far and wide for its marvelous curative qualities in skin diseases. Mr. Gaylord is also connected with the German Bar mining properties at Snow Point.

Talk as you will about the devil, but he's always at his post and ready to wait on customers.

The reward for good behavior may sometimes be slow in coming, but you never hear of good behavior getting a man in trouble.

Ever notice that the average Nevada City woman will talk more about the man who marries three times than about the ones who don't marry at all?

We found a Nevada City man yesterday who says he can't understand why a woman will refuse to wear a made over dress yet be perfectly content with a made-over face.

BITS OF HUMOR

The only difference between the old days and the new around Penn Valley is that people used to travel 20 miles to get to church on Sunday and now they drive 50 miles to get away from it.

A Fort Jones man declares that he has to walk the floor nearly every night, and all for the simple season that his wife doesn't believe in paregoric.

To old-timers, the jazz courtship of today isn't as substantial as the old fashioned billing and cooing kind even if it does cost more.

It's a funny world. Old maids know best how to raise children and only the poor know how the rich should spend their money.

Looks may not always count, but every Nevada City married man knows it's going to mean trouble when he sees that "Just wait until the company goes" look on his wife's face.

SHIP BY TRUCK

This is the slogan of Modern Transportation all over the country. The wheels of progress are rolling into your gateway. To work in harmony with the wheels of progress means advancement—to work against them means retrogression.

TRUCK TRANSPORTATION MEANS MODERN TRANSPORTATION

It means Lower Rates! It means Quicker Service! Quicker Turnover! Resulting in Lower Prices to the Consumer!

HERE'S A COMPARISON OF FREIGHT RATES:

Present Rail Rates per 100 lbs.

Class	1	2	3	4
Grass Valley	63½c	61c	53½c	52c
Nevada City	63½c	62c	53½c	52c
Truck Rates as filed with Railroad Commission
Grass Valley	53c	48c	45c	42c
Nevada City	54c	49c	46c	43c

These rates are subject to exactly the same jurisdiction of the Railroad Commision as are the rates of the Railroad.

The additional saving of 5 to 10 cents per hundred pounds by having store door delivery totals from 3 to do4llars benefit to the consumer.

But what about the N. C. N. G.? An intelligent investigation by the Public will show that the N. C. N. G. is operating at a profit. A surplus was accumulated in the treasury by a previous administration and the railroad was put on a sound financial basis by a man not even residing in Nevada County.

The continuance of the present rail service will not be jeopardized if a Franchised Truck Service is inaugurated. The two will work in harmony for the betterment of each other and the community.

This is not merely a statement. We are willing to back it up by offering to buy the securities and property of the N. C. N. G. at exactly what it cost the present owners. We will continue the operation of this Railroad in conjunction with the proposed truck service. We guarantee a better service to the public at a Lower Cost.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH NEVADA CITY?

Nothing wrong with Nevada City except that entirely too many of us get up in the morning at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, button a paid of Chicago trousers to Ohio suspenders, put on a pair of shoes made in Massachusetts, wash in a Pittsburg tin basin, using Cincinnati soap and a cotton towel made in New Hampshire, sit down to a Grand Rapids table, eat pancakes made from Minneapolis flour, spread with Vermont maple syrup and Kansas City bacon fried on a St Louis stove, eat fruit put up in Los Angeles, seasoned with Rhode Island spices and sweetened with Colorado sugar, put on a hat made in Philadelphia, and hie ourselves to the daily task in a Texas gasoline fed fliver and work like hell all day long to payf or taxes and Ohio tires, wondering why the ever increasing Tax Rate; and then at night crawl under a New Jersey blanket to be kept awake by a dam dog, the only home product on the place—all the while pondering why ready money and prosperity are not more abundant in this beautiful city of ours.

During the recent cold spell a few weeks ago, a Columbia lady, wanting to take a bath and not wanting to go into a cold bathroom, hit upon the idea of bawthing in a wash tub in the warm kitchen, placing the tub very near the hot stove.

Love and Lilac Time

The lilac is an oriental blossom coming to us originally by the way of Turkey and Spain. It is supposed to be the flower of love and lovers, marking the heyd y of spring. The love lore of the "laylock," to give it an old world name, is varied and pleasant. A spray of white lilac, buried on the eve of a new May moon, is a midland charm which maidens practiced believing that by the time the lilac died they would have the heart of the man they desired.

The Thinker

Beware when the great God lets loose a thinker on this planet. Then all things are at risk. It is as when a conflagration has broken out in a great city, and no man knows what is safe or where it will end. There is not a piece of science but its flank may be turned tomorrow; there is not any literary reputation, not the so-called eternal names of fame, that may not be revised and condemned, the very hopes of man, the thoughts of his heart, the religion of nations, the manner and morals of mankind, are all at the mercy of a new generalization.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

DOC IVEY PULLS A TOOTH ON THE ROAD

CAMPTONVILLE, Feb. 15, (Special to the Nugget) —Dr. John R. Ivey, Nevada City's popular dentist, does not believe in confining his dental work only within the limited walls of his offices. This was evidenced Tuesday, while the doctor was enroute to Downieville and Camptonville, where he will spend a few days attending to the wants of his patients, when he met a patient on the highway who was suffering from a bad tooth. An examination of the trouble showed that there was nothing that could save the tooth, and there being no time like the present, the tooth was extracted right then and there on the highway, and both parties went their way happily.

Dr. Ivey has an engagement here all day Saturday, and his many friends look forward to a pleasant week end; however, he is soaking the implements in pain killer, and no one need have any fears.

Social Study Important

Social study has become one of the most important subjects in the modern school curriculum of today. The story of the invention of the steam shovel by Charles B King—the story of how he one day as a boy refused to "go fishin'" with the other boys because he was lying flat on his stomach thinking out an idea about an old mill wheel that wouldn't run and how he might and did make it work—these are far more interesting and vitalizing things to the schoolboy of twelve or fourteen of today than the old lists of dates and names, and the mere memorizing or locating of them without any connecting link to make them interesting.—Exchange.

H H.elwig of Oakland; and three brothers, Jack of San Jose, Roy of Spaulding and Clarene Landsburg of Snow Tent survive.

Scarlet Uniform Not Conspicuous in Field

The writers of American school histories have frequently taken occasion to remark scornfully upon the scarlet uniform worn by the British regulars in the campaigns against the Indians during Colonial days, but, as a matter of fact, the scarlet coat of the Briton was a less conspicuous uniform than the blue subsequently adopted for the army of the United States.

Careful experiments have brought out the fact that light gray, such as that worn by the West Point cadets, is the color first lost to sight in the field. Scarlet comes next, with dark gray, blue and green in the order named. In target practice it has been found that of all colors scarlet is most difficult to hit. Light green is almost invisible under the violet tinge of electric lights, and would, therefore, be an excellent color for the uniforms of naval scouts who would be exposed to the rays of an enemy's searchlights.

Varying Vocabularies

The University of Iowa has issued a list of 10,000 words most accurately used in writing. It has been estimated that 8,000 words are a good average vocabulary. It has also been estimated that a 1,000-word vocabulary is the average for a laborer. The estimated vocabulary of the high school students varies so widely that they hesitate to quote figures. It ranges from 2,000 to 4,000 and 5,000.

Besides his activities in this line he s dong everything possible to secure legislation favorable to the mining industry, in which his district s much nterested.

OUT OF TOWN PAPERS

Some real civic spirited citizens who are otherwise thoroughly consistent in their civic consciousness evidently believe that trading at home stops short of newspaper subscriptions. There are some people who boast of the fact that they have read this or that paper for many years, but never read a home town newspaper.

The home town newspaper plays an important part in the community development. Often times srtangers will judge a town solely by its newspapers. If the newspapers are poorly edited, porrly printed, biased, and unfair, a bad impression results. The reverse is true if the newspaper is well edited, well printed, fair, honest and truly representative of the community.

Local newspapers cannot be expected to render the fullest measure of service to the community if they have not the community's support. So much from the newspapers standpoint.

Then there's the hardship the individual is unwittingly perpetrating upon himself. How can he be a part of the community life if he is out of touch with events which transpire or are about to transpire in his home town? He cannot find the true spirit of the community reflected in out-of-town newspapers. The news they print is usually stale because the paper must go to press hours before it is circulated. They have no personal interest in any particular community because their scope of circulation is too wide for specialization.

If residents of smaller cities feel the necessity for an out-of-town newspaper they should supplemens their reading with a publication which really represents their own interests.—Oroville Mercury.

"I like to see a man stick up for his church," asserts a Nevada City man "but I dont think' much of the fellow who gets fighting mad if you differ with his doctrine."

SMALL TOWN BUSINESS IS NOTICED BY STRANGERS

The following reprinted from the Waterford News, has its counterpart in many towns:

"What's the matter with some of your business men," remarked a stranger who dropped into the News office the other day. "I notice several who have no advertising in your paper. Personally I would be ashamed to try to do business in a town and not do my share toward the support of the local paper."

FORMER RESIDENT IN REVIEW OF 24 YEARS

Visiting friends and scenes of twenty-four years ago, Mrs. Mary Fenton, is visiting with her daughter, Mamie Fenton on Park Avenue, this city. With her on the trip is her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Robenson and Miss Pagliero of Richmond, California.

Sunday an automobile trip was taken from Nevada City over the Ridge to French Corral, Mrs. Fenton's former home and where Mrs. Robenson was born.

This was Mrs. Fenton's first visit to her old home since 1904, excepting for having spent a couple of weeks in French Corral following the earth quake in 1906.

Many are the changes that have taken place since that time. The old Fenton home is now occupied by Mrs. John Kirkwood, who although past fifty, occupies the old home place all alone.

While a few of the old homes are still standing, and live in memory only and only a clearing marks the site of most of those whose names were familiar to Mrs. Fenton twenty-four years ago.

Chinatown of old French Corral is only a pile of rocks and one delapidated old shed.

On the Flat there remains only Charlie French's place, Kate Sullivan's, nee Kate Farley, and the old Robert's place. The old school house is still there and the old saloon and post-office.

The "Diggings" are gradually becoming over-grown with underbrush. These old "Diggings" marking the active days of hydraulic mining and the days of prosperity to French Corral, Birchville, Sweetland, and North San Juan, and the days when French Corral had a population of about fifty families and when the Chinese population alone numbered one hundred and fifty to two hundred, like the homes themselves are yielding to time and its kindly ravages and with the homes "Diggings" supported, will soon have passed into the beyond such that travelers passing along the dirt road, almost as smooth as pavement, would hardly guess their history.

The old Hotel is still run by John Culver and wife and remains about as it was a quarter of a century ago.

The orange trees more than a quarter century old are loaded with oranges today as luscious as the Southland boasts and violets once planted in orderly borders have gone wild and streak the entire slope of yard with blue and white.

The old "Dickie Neville Hill" is as clean and smooth as any kept golf course and along the road side by side with the red berries usually associated with winter, the spring flowers are just beginning to come forth.

The only evidence of mining was a claim being ground sluiced by a Mr. Meyers and as the party climbed over the old "Diggings" up to the now working mine, an unlocked tool box stood on the side of the hill. Free Woodman said, "That's like the old days when men didn't steal, you wouldn't leave that tool box wide open in the city, would you? But that was mining custom once."

What a pity that these old places should be allowed to decay for want of water. Prettier homesites are not to be found in the state, and as one passes the unpruned trees and the unkept orchards and vineyards, one asks, "Why?" and the answer is "No water."

What a pity an irrgation district could not be organized and the old Ridge brought back. It can, and will be done.

It has been, with Mrs. Fenton, one of the most pleasant trips she has ever experienced, and she leaves for her home today carrying with her mental pictures of things as they were and as they are and a prayer that as they were, they may be.
